

Larry Bukovey

Bio

Larry was born and raised in Akron, Ohio and while attending Cuyahoga Falls High School (Class of 1983), was bitten by the proverbial “Acting Bug” while performing in productions of “Brigadoon” and “Hello Dolly” in his junior and senior years, respectively. Since moving to Florida in December of 1990 Larry has been involved in a number of film, stage and TV productions throughout Florida (Burn Notice) and South Carolina (Army Wives).

Improvisation has been at the heart of all that Larry has been involved with as a performer since 1998, when he entered the bizarre and wonderful world of improv comedy as a student at Orlando’s SAK Comedy Lab. Since then he has studied improv with: Annoyance Theater, Chicago; iO (Improv Olympics), Chicago; The Second City, Chicago and Los Angeles and the Upright Citizens Brigade (UCB), New York. He has performed improv with: Comedy Buffet, Winter Haven, FL; Bay Area Improv Theatre or BAIT (Co-Founder), Tampa; Odd Man Out, Tampa and can now be seen on stage with Ybor City’s Dear Aunt Gertrude, every Friday night.

Larry is a student at the Performer’s Studio Workshop (PSW) in Tampa, studying the Eric Morris Process (adapted) with Kathy Laughlin, CSA. To date, his most important and most cherished role has been that of “Dad” to his son Mathias.

While learning about Business, Instrument and Craft on a weekly basis, Larry is working on his list of “Five Things an Actor Needs” before moving west of the Mississippi or East of the Hudson. He is also trying to develop his “theatrical musculature” which will hopefully affect his “Physiognomy”. Thank you Mr. Assante!!!
